

This is a high-contrast, black and white image of a book's spine. The spine is the central vertical element, showing the binding structure. The edges of the pages are visible on either side, creating a dark, textured appearance. The image is oriented vertically, with the spine running from top to bottom. The lighting is very dramatic, with deep blacks and bright whites, highlighting the texture of the paper and the binding. There is no text or other markings visible on the spine.
